FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 16, 2009

Eastbrook Homes reports increase in activity and sales at West Michigan communities.

Grand Rapids, September 16- Eastbrook Homes, a Michigan new home and community builder, today announced “Good News” in the housing market. Eastbrook Homes has seen increased activity at a number of their West Michigan and Lansing communities.

On August 20, 2009 Eastbrook hosted a “Sneak Peek” pre- grand opening event at the Cottages of Cook’s Crossing in Byron Center schools. Not only did a record number of people attend the event, but both homes have been sold long prior to completion.

West Hamptons located in the Forest Hills school district is another example. The community will officially kick off their Grand Opening on Thursday, September 24th. Sales activity in this community has been brisk even prior to grand opening. West Hamptons has seen 6 sales in the very short time Eastbrook Homes has been involved in the community.

“It is very encouraging to see the sales activity we have witnessed recently in many of our communities. This is a positive sign for all of us in West Michigan and certainly affirms reports of increased demand both in national and local news.” said Bob Sorensen, Eastbrook Homes.

Eastbrook Homes has offered West Michigan home buyers exceptional neighborhoods, incomparable value, inspiring choices and extraordinary service for more than 40 years. Eastbrook’s Grand Rapids and Lakeshore communities include Ada Moorings, Arbor Hills, Bailey’s Grove, Cannon Farms, Meadows of Cannon Farms, Cook’s Crossing, Fairmount Square, Saddle Ridge, Hathaway Lakes, Lowing Woods, and Windflower Bay, as well as the Michael McGraw community of Stoneshire in Ada. Additionally, Eastbrook Homes is building in five communities in Lansing and one community in Auburn, Alabama. The privately held company is located in Grand Rapids, Michigan.
